THE BIG IDEA

We can honor God by remaining pure!

Jesus lived a pure life and we are called to be pure like Him. Because we represent Jesus here on earth, people learn what Jesus is like from our example.

Write the verses for this month in a place where the whole family can see it (fridge, family chalkboard, etc.). When you see your child in the morning, point the verses out to them, read the verses with them and ask them what it means to be pure.

While driving, discuss purity with your child. Talk about what it means to be pure in heart. Talk with your child about how they can ask God for help when it comes to thinking, living, and loving pure.

During dinner time, talk about what it means to live impure. Talk as a family about the importance of helping our friends stay pure as well as ourselves. Ask your child what they can do when they're tempted to do, think, or say something that is not pure.

Each night before bed, take this time to pray together to thank Jesus for being the perfect example of purity. Pray, "Dear God, thank You for teaching me how to remain pure! I know I can turn to you when I am tempted. We love you. Amen!"
