THE BIG IDEA

Our best isn't good enough - but God's grace is!

Two things often keep us from freely accepting God's grace. We either think we're too bad for God to accept us, or we think that we can be good enough on our own. Neither is true! Instead, God's grace is available to us all when we simply accept the sacrifice Christ made for us on the cross!

Write the verses for this month in a place where the whole family can see it (fridge, family chalkboard, etc.). When you see your child in the morning, point the verses out to them, read the verses with them and talk about what grace means.

While driving, discuss grace with your child. Talk about what it means to be saved and how being saved means that we can go to God when we mess up and he gives us his amazing grace!

During dinner time, talk about what it means to be accepted by God. Talk as a family about God's grace and how He gives it freely to us, no matter what we've done or what we're ashamed of. Ask each person at the table about a time when they gave someone grace for messing up.

Each night before bed, take this time to pray together. Pray, "Dear God, thank You for the amazing grace that you freely give me! I know that I am a sinner, but you still cover me with your grace when I've done or said something I shouldn't. I love you. Amen!"
